Overview

Dr. Divya Arora is an accomplished Dermatologist, Aesthetic and Cosmetology specialist with over 12 years of clinical experience. She holds advanced international and national fellowships in dermatosurgery and hair transplantation and has trained at prestigious global platforms, including the Cosmetic Surgery Forum in Las Vegas, USA, and through the ISD Scholarship in Munich, Germany.

Her expertise spans clinical dermatology, aesthetic dermatology, and advanced laser-based treatments. Dr. Arora is skilled in skin rejuvenation therapies—including chemical peels, laser rejuvenation, and medi-facials—as well as laser procedures for hair reduction, pigmentation, and skin resurfacing. She offers a comprehensive range of anti-ageing treatments such as Botox, fillers, PRP, and skin-tightening procedures, along with non-surgical face and body contouring. She also specializes in acne, pigmentation, scar management, hair restoration therapies, and dermatosurgical procedures including vitiligo surgery.

Dr. Arora has contributed significantly to academic dermatology as Co-Editor of a Clinical Dermatology textbook and has authored multiple chapters and publications. She has previously been associated with institutions such as the Army College of Medical Sciences (New Delhi), Livasa Hospital (Mohali), and Paras Hospital (Panchkula).

Fluent in Hindi and English, she practices at Apolomedics Superspeciality Hospitals, Lucknow, and is available for consultations from Monday to Saturday, 9:00 am to 5:00 pm.
